MONDAY REPORT

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor
February 11,1991

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-29-95

SHELTON SPONSORS STUDENT FORUM AS PART OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE MONTH CELEBRATION

As part of Community College Month celebration, the Student Government Association of Shelton State Community College will present a student forum on Thursday, February 14, 9-10 a.m. in the Skyland Boulevard Campus Auditorium.

The forum will address issues currently facing Shelton State students. Some of the areas to be addressed include: "How fair is the funding for Shelton State?;" "What is the effect of rising college tuition costs?;" "Is Shelton adequately preparing students for today's work force?;" "How effective is the learning environment at Shelton State?;" "How can we make Shelton a more environmentally sensitive institution?"

The forum is open to all faculty, staff, and students of the college as well as anyone from the Tuscaloosa community.

Community College Month is celebrated during February of each year. Currently, 75,000 Alabamians are attending one of the state's two year institutions. During Fall 1990, over 5200 students attended Shelton State Community College.

For additional information on the forum, contact Page Piland, SGA president, 345-0904; Rick Shelton, SGA advisor, 391-2286; or Lucy Kubiszyn, 391-2221.

RECEPTIONS TO SHOW APPRECIATION TO STUDENTS AT SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE WILL ALSO BE HELD ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, AS PART OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE MONTH.

A reception to show appreciation to students at Shelton State Community College will be held on Thursday, February 14, as part of Community College Month. The reception on Skyland Campus will be held immediately following the student forum in the auditorium. The reception on Fifteenth Street Campus will be in the LRC auditorium. The receptions will be from 10-11 a.m. on both campuses.

SPRING QUARTER REGISTRATION
The dates for registration for Spring quarter are as follows:

EARLY REGISTRATION

CURRENTLY ENROLLED STUDENTS
Friday, February 15 : 9 a.m. -1 p.m. (15th St. Campus, RTI Nursing)
Wednesday, February 20 :1-3 p.m. 60 hours or more
3-5 p.m. 40 hours - 59 hours
Thursday, February 21: 1-7 p.m. 39 hours and below

Friday, February 22: 12 noon -2 p.m. Freshman Orientation

REGISTRATION

THURSDAY, MARCH 7 : 12 NOON -7 P.M.
FRIDAY, MARCH 8: 9 A.M.- 4 P.M.

LATE REGISTRATION

MONDAY, MARCH 11: 9 a.m. -4 p.m.
TUESDAY, MARCH 12: ($10 late fee) 9 a.m.- 4 p.m.

SHELTON STATE ANNOUNCES BLACK HISTORY MONTH ACTIVITIES

Two programs have been scheduled during February at Shelton State Community College as part of the institution's Black History Month activities. The purpose of the programs will be to look at the historical developments of the black community in Tuscaloosa and to examine current race relations in Tuscaloosa County.

Two members of the Tuscaloosa City Council will present a program from 10:30 a.m.-12 noon on February 21 at Shelton's Fifteenth Street Campus. Councilmen John England and Charles Steele will reflect on the history and progress of the black community in Tuscaloosa. Councilman England is an attorney with the law firm of England and Bivens P.C. City Councilman Charles Steele is an owner of Van Hoose, and Steele Funeral Home of Tuscaloosa. The program will be held in the Poole Learning Resource Center on the Fifteenth Street Campus.

On Monday, February 25, a panel discussion will be held at 7 p.m. in the auditorium on the Skyland Boulevard Campus. "The State of Race Relations in Tuscaloosa County at the Present Time" will be subject for the evening. Serving on the panel are Councilman John England, Dr. Rhoda Johnson, director of Women's Studies at the University of Alabama, Dr. E. Culpepper Clark, executive assistant to President Roger Sayers at the University, and Dr. Arthur Howington, dean of academic affairs at Shelton State Community College.

Both of Shelton's Black History Month programs are free and open to the public. Serving on the committees for Black History Month are Sharon Deck, Katherine Alexander, Bessie German, Ed Winslow, and Darlene Moore.

SHELTON TO HOST SCHOLARS' BOWL COMPETITION

Shelton State will host one of the regional scholars' bowl competition for the Alabama Scholastic Challenge. The competition is set for February 22 and will include teams from 24 high schools. Registration and orientation for the event will take place between 8 and 9 a.m. with actual competition beginning at 9 a.m. Rick Shelton is chairman of the scholars' bowl competition.

SHELTON SINGERS TO OFFER SINGING VALENTINES ON FEBRUARY 14

The Shelton Singers will offer Singing Valentines on February 14 as part of a fundraising effort with all proceeds going to the Shelton State Foundation Music Scholarship Fund. As part of the Singing Valentines, the students will go solo or in duet, and dressed formally complete with ballons and candy, according to Syble Coats, chair of Shelton's music department. The cost for someone to sing solo is $10, and for a duet, the price is $20.00. To order a Singing Valentine, contact Kathy Simmons, 391-2283.

MONDAY CONCERT SERIES.

With Valentine Day approaching, the Shelton State Community College voice faculty will present a program of "songs and arias of love" as part of the college's weekly Monday Concert Series. The program will be held on Monday, February 11, at 1 p.m. in the music room on the Skyland Boulevard Campus. Performing will be mezzo-sopranos Glinda Blackshear and Joanne Uniatowski and baritone Dewin Tibbs. Pam Penick will accompany on the piano. The program will include arias by Mozart, Bizet, Saint-Saens and Mossenet, as well as art songs by Schubert, Schumann, and Brahms.